

What is Campus Girl Scouts?

Do you enjoy community service, planning fun events, and spending time with friends? Would you like to help make a difference in girls' lives? If so, then you should consider joining Campus Girl Scouts. Each year we plan and carry out events for young and older Girl Scouts. As volunteer adult Girl Scout members, we like to stay connected to our local Girl Scout community. Of course, we also make sure to have fun ourselves, with activities like trips to The Mix and adventures rock climbing, not to mention our annual big weekend adventure! Whatever we're doing, we always have a great time.

Who Can Be a Campus Girl Scout?

You can! No previous scouting required! You don't even have to be a girl! Everyone is welcome to join Campus Girl Scouts and become an official adult member of Girl Scouts, USA. Many lifetime members also find Campus Girl Scouts to be a new and rewarding experience.

CGS Annual Events

Girl Fun Day

CGS at the University of Washington annually hosts a day of activities for grade school aged girls at Camp River Ranch in Carnation, Washington. About 200 girls and leaders attend our fun-filled day of games, crafts, songs, and snacks. It's always a big hit with the kids, who really look up to college-aged role models. In fact, Girl Fun Day is so popular that this year we will be having two of them, one in January and one in February. Contact us to come help, and join in the fun!

Kristi, a CGS member, leads her group of Girl Scout Investigators down the Quad during Murder Mystery Tour 2006.

Murder Mystery Tour

Last year, our first Murder Mystery Tour was a huge success! About 30 Girl Scouts, ages 12 to 17, embarked from the University of Washington HUB on a tour of campus that lead them to suspects and clues which eventually helped them solve the mystery of who killed Ivanna Justice. Guided by members of CGS, also learned about the UW campus and college life. This event was so much fun and so well received by attendees that we plan to host our second annual Murder Mystery Tour in spring 2007.

CGS Big Adventure

Every year, we plan at least one big weekend event just for us. Two years ago we planned an overnight trip to Victoria, British Columbia that included tea at the Empress Hotel. Last year we rode the Spirit of Washington mystery dinner train and followed it with a movie night. This year's trip has yet to be planned, but if you join CGS, you can help us decide where to go!

...And many other activities too!
