UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENTS OF
PHYSICS & ASTRONOMY

Event overview

- > The annual Networking Days connect the UW Physics and Astronomy PhD student community with industry representatives to discuss career paths outside academia, identify talent, and foster important connections.
- > The Networking Days have customarily brought 30 or more members of the physics and astronomy graduate school community together with over a dozen employers from here in the Pacific Northwest and across the U.S.
- > The high-level schedule for the 2018 event is outlined below—more detailed program information can be found on the event website!

Friday, November 30 (late afternoon — evening)

- > Opening university presentation
- > Student research talks
- > Student poster & networking session
(+ hors d'oeuvres, beer, & wine)

Saturday, December 1 (morning — mid-afternoon)

- > Reception and light breakfast
- > Company introductions
- > Employer and alumni panels
- > Catered lunch
- > Sponsor presentations

Sponsorship details

> Generous financial support from employers is what makes this event possible every year. Please consider supporting our organization with the package below:

Networking Days Sponsorship - $500

- Registration for two representatives
 - Feature on the event website and in the event program
 - Dedicated table for your representatives during networking events
 - Seat on Saturday's employer panels
 - Time slot for Saturday's sponsor presentations
 - Student CV's provided one week prior to event
- > If you cannot provide a sponsorship but would still like to attend, employer registration is $100/person. This includes a highlight in the event program, company introduction, and access to all programming including student and employer talks, the poster and networking session, and all meals and refreshments.
- > Follow the registration link at the left to register! Want more or have questions? Consult our website at <http://students.washington.edu/cdophys/> or reach us via email. Thank you for your interest in our event—we're excited to see you there!
