

INROADS Puget Sound Student Association February Newsletter

Hello INROADS Interns!

We are finally in our last quarter before our internships start. Hopefully the weather will gradually get sunnier as well! ☺ I hope you all are doing fabulous as we head into the first stretch of midterms. Remember to enjoy the soon and coming good weather. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns for the upcoming months. You can contact me at lanz@u.washington.edu. Make sure to check our website at <http://students.washington.edu/ipssa> for updates as well!

Take care,

Interns, Do You Still Need A Few Community Service Hours Before 25 Total Hours?

Seattle MESA is hosting a fun-filled Saturday for K-10 MESA students. The students are very excited about MESA Day, and are looking forward to interacting with industry professionals and university students like yourselves. A nice additional value of MESA Day is the chance for industry professionals and college students to get to know each other as they work together.

Date: Saturday, May 14 Location: Seattle Central Community College
Time: 8:30am-2:20pm
Lunch is provided

If you would like to be a judge, or volunteer, please respond to JoEarl Murphy joearlm@u.washington.edu. Also, please let Vanny know if you are interested in volunteering as well at chhamv@u.washington.edu. (You can be both a judge and volunteer for the event.)

Memorable Quotes...

Do you have a favorite quote? The one that you have in your profile, or the one you always say? If you think it deserves to be on the back of our IPSSA shirts for 2005 and is encouraging to others, please email Alice at alliang@u.washington.edu your idea. She is currently looking for the perfect quote!
