

Make a difference for your company and your community.
Become a corporate sponsor of the Kappa Delta Auction, benefiting Children's Trust Foundation!

Friday, March 7, 2008
Bell Harbor International Conference Center, Seattle

Since 1998, Kappa Delta sorority at the University of Washington has been making a real difference in the lives of children and families across Washington State by hosting a gala dinner and auction to benefit Children's Trust Foundation and Prevent Child Abuse America. Founded in 1987, the nonprofit Children's Trust Foundation funds programs provided by Family Support Centers across the state. By helping parents learn to better nurture, discipline, communicate with and bond with their children, these Centers foster healthy, happy families. Thanks to the generous support of Kappa Delta and other individual, corporate and foundation donors, Children's Trust awarded $129,000 in grants to Family Support Centers in 2007.

The vision of Children's Trust Foundation is that no child in Washington State will suffer from abuse or neglect because his or her parent could not find support.

Your company can play a vital role in this important work by partnering with Kappa Delta to sponsor this inspirational event. You'll not only help advance the Foundation's mission of preventing child abuse and neglect, you'll make a strong public statement to the expected 300 guests and to our community about your support for families and children.

We are pleased to offer you the following recognition and benefits in appreciation of your sponsorship.
