

This is an example of a student who used a variety of descriptive words to write four similes for the assignment.

My mystery object is as light as a light brown.

My mystery object is as loud as a drum.

My mystery object is as hard as cement.

My mystery object is as big as a kindergardener.

This is another example of a student who used vivid descriptive words in his simile sentences.

My mystery object is as sharp as a sword fish.

My mystery object is as shiny
as a crown.

My mystery object is as
dandrous as a shark.
