

PACURH No Frills 2009 – University of Washington

Alcohol and Substance Abuse Statement

Alcohol and illegal drugs are nationally recognized as substances, which may have a negative effect on the lives of college students. As a leadership organization, which works largely with college students under the legal drinking age, NACURH/PACURH recognize that alcohol is not needed for a good time or to promote positive growth. Illicit drugs can be lethal. Therefore, all events will be disengaged “alcohol and drug free.” This policy will be enforced by the Conference staff, in consultation with the RBD and the relevant Regional Advisor and Regional Director.

I, _____(name), have read and understand the above NACURH/PACURH policy concerning the of alcohol and other illicit drugs and/or substances and agree to adhere to the policies during my participation and the PACURH No Frills 2009 conference. I am aware that failure to adhere to these policies may result in my removal from the conference site and disciplinary action by my college or university and/or removal from the University of Washington campus. I further understand that my removal from the conference will result in a loss of all conference privileges and that my delegate registration fee will be forfeited entirely.
