Campus Winner

NACURH, INC. Passive Program of the Month Winter Comforts

Month: November 2011

School:	University of Washington	Region:	PACURH
Person in charge:	Maggie Thorpe	Nominator:	Ian Walsh
Target Population: 60		Time Needed to Organiz	e: 1 day
Number of People in Attendance: n/a		Date(s) of Program: 11/15-12/17
Number of People Needed to Organize: 1		Cost of Program: $0
On-Campus Population: 5600		Chapter Size: 56
	Origin of Prog	ıram:
	home where they live, and that come from different places, this better in the winter.
Word Count: 45
	Please give a short descripti	ion of the program:
for the cold", how to make Some other cooking ideas	at has lots of different advice for e hot chocolate, and ideas about are also interspersed in the boa nowman, along with some snowf	what you can do to have furd. There is also some infor	in on a cold night!
Word Count: 73
	Goals of the pro	ogram:
information and advice ab	were to help residents cope with out different types of winter acti bulletin board is supposed to mak	vities so that residents enjo
Word Count: 36
	Positive and lasting effect	s of the program:
People will be able to use	this information to make themse	elves happy in the winter! T	here are really god recipes on it so that people can eat and drink new and different things.

Word Cour	nt: 33
	Short evaluation of the program:

This board is placed perfectly in the hall so that everyone walks by it to get to the elevator and the stairs, so lots of people see it. Overall, it is an awesome board and hopefully people take the advice on it.

Word Count: 42

How could this program be adapted to other campuses?

It would be very easy to do a bulletin board of this nature on any other college campus by taking this idea and making it your own.

Word Count: 27