 - NACURH Update – Brittany Grgich
 - Going to Oklahoma State University this weekend
 - There will be a sendoff tonight (Thursday) at 9 P.M. in the McCarty Leadership Office

- Issues of the Week

- Stevens Court
 - Lawn mowing at 7 A.M. is very loud
 - McCarty
 - Some residents do not have shields on their sprinklers (in case of fire) in their rooms, and are getting cut on the sprinklers if they have bunked beds
 - There is a part of the ceiling in McCarty 1 North that leaks
 - KOH
 - The King of Hansee requested a milk vending machine
 - Terry
 - There were ants found in the Terry 10 lounge after a work order was put through
 - Clarified by Zach Tobin: Ant removal usually takes 4 days due to the type of extermination used
 - McMahon
 - The McMahon lobby has been smelling strange

- Committees

- Programming
 - Winners of Mr. and Miss RHSA: Sami Irish and Joseph Jones
 - Sami Peterson was Miss Congeniality

- This Wednesday there will be a midnight showing (Wednesday night) of “Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull” at the Neptune, with $5 tickets going on sale this Saturday
 - CPC
 - The chocolate fountain for north campus, a camcorder for south campus, and Rock Band kits for the XBox 360s have been ordered
 - Looking into a silkscreen kit for the Leadership Office, a sink for Rick’s, and tools for SEED’s garden
 - CAC
 - Attend CAC if you are signed up for the committee!
 - Iron Chef was yesterday, and a team from McMahan and McCarty won the competition with their curry dish
 - Jessica is still working on sanitation issues for the sandwich place at the 8
 - Suggestion by Sam Guyer: Have sliced pickles at the 8 (Noted: sliced pickles are already offered at the 8)
 - Suggestion by M’Liss for jalapenos at the salad bar at 1101
 - HWC
 - Getting ready for the May 31st Recess Olympics

- NRHH Report –M’Liss DeWald

- Announced campus OTM winners for April
- Clarified: OTM for community was specifically for McCarty reps rather than all RHSA reps

- Head Senator Report – Salil

- Went over a resolution in support of public funding of political campaigns, which passed
- Resolution dealing with additional emergency (Code Blue) call stations north of 45th also passed
- Coming up: resolutions in support of increased voter participation at the university, more baby changing stations on campus, class websites, short-term parking on campus, and a global health minor on campus
- Addressing a question from Beth Gawne about working on an airport shuttle directly to and from UW: the director of transportation at UW said that it isn’t an issue that comes up frequently or gets a lot of pressure to happen
- Volleyball tournament against the ASUW Senate Commuter Caucus this weekend (Sunday) at 1:00 P.M. at the IMA

- SEED Report – Jennifer

- There is a garden party going on right now
- SEED has been talking with First Year Programs about including an info session about sustainability during Advising and Orientation sessions that occur over the summer for incoming students
 - Noted by Alex: his group of orientation leaders for this summer is working on a skit about sustainability

- Hall Council Reports

- MacCity has elections this Monday for president and vice president and is working on a May 31st canoe race at the Waterfront Activities Center
- Minor intermission from hall council reports to notice Conor McLean creepily filming the meeting from outside
- HPC will have elections on Monday for president and vice president for next year, and there will be a stargazing event next Wednesday at 8:30, leaving from the Grey Lounge to go to the Observatory; eating contest coming up, as well as a water fight and Fugitive
- MC2 will have a barbeque with elections for President and Vice President on Monday
- TLHC has elections coming up on Monday; it was confirmed at the last TLHC meeting that Terry and Lander will be two separate hall councils for next year, and the Lander president will be elected from Early Fall Start students (though having a Lander president elected during the regular school year was discussed); Terry's future hall council name will be voted on soon
- SMAC will be having a beach barbeque bash this Saturday from 1-4 P.M. on Mercer Field; SMAC president for next year is Ciara Clemmons
- KOH will be having elections this Monday – if anyone knows someone living in Hansee for next year, tell them to run

- Advisor Report – Jake

- Buy your RHSA apparel! Lindsay has a list and knows who ordered it...
- Next week is Thx 2U week, and breakfast in bed deliveries on Monday start around 8:30 A.M.
 - Zach Tobin will deliver breakfast in bed to those in Oklahoma that day
 - The big barbeque for the event is on Wednesday
 - There will be items coming with the breakfast that can be used to enter into the large-prize drawings at the barbeque
 - Dining facilities will be closed for the barbeque
- It is never too early to submit an OTM, and you can submit more than one entry for a single category
- Chris Jaehne noted that HFS Director Paul Brown is moving over to Capitol Projects

- Announcements

- One Night Stand at the Burke coming up on Wednesday at 7 P.M.
- Young Democrats will be holding a political campaign internship fair next Wednesday from 7-8 P.M. in Gowen 201
- SEED expressed its thanks for the OTM recognition
- ASUW election results will be announced tonight (Thursday) in the HUB on the main lobby on the second floor at 7 P.M.
- Make sure to R.S.V.P. for the Leadership Banquet if you were invited, as the deadline is tomorrow

Adjourn – 5:20P.M.
