

The Dr. Seuss Guide to Leadership

Pacific Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls (PACURH) Conference Application

Due to the McCarty Leadership Office or to rhsaweb@u.washington.edu by Monday, October 13th at 5pm.

General Information

The PACURH Conference is a great way to meet young college students who are motivated and involved from over 40 universities all along the west coast! As a delegate, you will attend programming sessions where you can network and learn new and exciting ideas for programs and events that you can then bring back to your halls! Spirit is a large part of this conference so be sure to bring your high energy as we show the region just how AWESOME the UW is. The night life is full of social activities from dance parties to free food and games. This weekend will change your life!!!!

PACURH Conference- Friday Nov. 7- Sunday Nov. 9. You will be excused from class for Friday the 7th.

Conference Cost: The cost is $50 which includes transportation, food while at the conference, and lodging. (No resident will be turned away due to fiscal issues. Please contact Conor McLean if this is an issue at rhsaweb@u.washington.edu)

Please fill out the following information:

Please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper, or as an attachment with your email.

1. Please list any past involvement in leadership or other student groups at the University of Washington. If this is your first year here, please feel free to include relevant past experiences from other universities and/or high school.
2. We'll be meeting weekly for about an hour to plan the conference. Please include a list of times you are available weekly for delegation meetings.

3. What do you hope to gain, personally, from attending this year's PACURH conference, and how will you use the knowledge you gain at the conference to enhance student life in the halls? (Please do not exceed 400 words)
4. Brainstorm a few school spirit ideas for the conference – if you have questions, ask Conor McLean at rhsaweb@u.washington.edu. This is a huge part of the conference as most of the interactions we will have with other schools will be through our spirit. Keep in mind there is a “Most Spirited” award we can win.
5. Do you have any ideas for programs to present at PACURH?<sup>1</sup> If so, outline the topic and (if possible) the presentation. (this is required for returning delegates) The application for programming is due October 17th.
6. If you could ask Dr. Seuss to write one story about anything, what would it be and why? (Don't use something he already wrote about, be creative 😊)

The Dr. Seuss Guide to Leadership Programming Form (due Oct. 17th)

Please follow this link to the RHSA website, then click on the PACURH 08 link to fill out a programming submission form for the PACURH '08

Conference: Again, this is optional for first-time delegates. If you are a returning delegate, you must complete at least one submission. Keep in mind the theme of the conference (Dr. Seuss) when creating a name and outline for your program.
