Resolution: A-1
Committee: HSC
Topic: Crisis in Rwanda
Sponsors: Rwanda, Pakistan

Acknowledging the crisis in Rwanda,

Recognizing the United Nations feels it has a duty to moderate the conflict,

Realizing this is strictly an internal conflict,

Therefore be it resolved that the United Nations:

1. Encourages Rwanda to settle this conflict as painlessly as possible;
2. Calls for absolutely no intervention whether it be militital or diplomatic;
3. Stresses that Rwanda is to be left alone;
4. Insists that Rwanda will call for UN help when it feels it is needed.

Signatories: New Zealand, United Kingdom, France, Czech Republic

Bearing in mind the necessary implementation of the Arusha Accord,

Recognizing the right of sovereignty in Rwanda,

Acknowledging the responsibility of the United Nations to protect the human rights of the international community,

Observing the continuing unrest in Rwanda,

Therefore be it resolved that the United Nations:

1. Calls for the establishment of a diplomatic presence in Rwanda for the purpose of monitoring the ongoing conflict;

2. Invites the cooperation of Rwandan government;

3. Affirms the position that the UN will not intervene in Rwandan affairs in the absence of the humanitarian crisis;

4. Endorses continued presence of UNAMIR in the DMZ zone of Rwanda.
Resolution: B-1-A
Committee: HSC
Topic: Crisis in Bosnia
Sponsors: United States of America, China, France

Alarmed by the lack of protection of the civilians in safe zones,

Deeply disturbed by the “ethnic cleansing” in the area,

Further noting the need for a stronger military defensive presence to protect the safe zones and the civilians within them:

Therefore be it resolved that the United Nations:

1. Requests the help of NATO to monitor and defensively protect safe zones.

B-1-B

2. Calls upon the continuation of the UNPROFOR in safe zones;

3. Encourages countries and organizations to provide humanitarian aid to the civilians in the safe zones;

4. Stresses the need to send an organized peace evacuation mission to the newly formed Serbian Republic to evacuate the ethnic minorities in the area that are being persecuted by the Serbian majority;

5. Calls for the establishment of infrastructure to aid in humanitarian and economic efforts.
Fully alarmed by the potential of the escalating conflict in the Bosnian situation,

Having considered the stances and needs of all involved parties,

Therefore be it resolved that the United Nations:

1. Condemns any military aggression in the area for any purpose;

2. Notes the conflicting agendas of the Bosnians and Serbs regarding the creation of a Serbian independent state;

3. Calls for peace talks between all involved parties;

4. Approves the actions of NATO and UN forces in strictly defensive support and peace talks;

5. Recommends mediation of UN in process of peace talks.
