

WASMUN Delegate Workshops

RESEARCH WORKSHOP, Saturday, December 8

9:30-1:30, Parrington Hall, University of Washington

Learn about the UN organization along with research techniques and information on where to locate United Nations resources on the University of Washington Campus.

DELEGATE TRAINING WORKSHOP, Saturday, January 12

9:30-12:30, Parrington Hall, University of Washington

Develop skills on writing position papers, writing resolutions and learn how to caucus. This workshop will include a special practice MUN simulation.

INTERNATIONAL CULTURES WORKSHOP, Saturday, February 2

9:30-1:00, Parrington Hall, University of Washington

Network with international community members to discuss country and region specific information and gain in-depth cultural perspectives on United Nations Countries. This workshop also includes a special practice MUN simulation.

INTERNATIONAL ISSUES WORKSHOP, Saturday, February 23

9:30-12:30, Parrington Hall, University of Washington

Meet with a panel of international affairs experts to discuss issues related to your specific topic. Eager to learn more about Refugee rights? Sanctions? Global climate change? Discuss these issues with international experts.

To sign up for these events contact Brenna Langabeer at the World Affairs Council,
(206) 441-5910 or email blangabeer@world-affairs.org

Registration is required.