

Category	Score (out of 5)	Comments
Statement of the Problem <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Demonstrates a solid understanding of the problem from the perspective of your country's government, or the problem's effect on your country's people. ❖ Makes specific references to issues/problems, with statistics or examples if necessary.
Explanation of Country's Position <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Demonstrates a solid understanding of your government's priorities and its relationship with other nations ❖ Demonstrates a clear sense of purpose: setting priorities, establishing precedent
Proposed Solutions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Demonstrates a good knowledge of the possibilities for UN role and action ❖ Paper ties together as a whole: solutions refer to problems raised and positions expressed in previous two paragraphs
Writing Style <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Paper uses clear, concise language ❖ Paper has flow; one point relates to another ❖ Paper has no typos, spelling mistakes, or grammar problems 		