The Wildlife Society, Student Chapter at UW is a student organization serving the UW community by providing activities and events that focus on wildlife issues. It is our hope that this site will serve not only to disseminate information regarding the activities of the club, but also as a point of reference for those students considering the environmental science and resource management program at UW.

Membership is open to everyone in the UW community. Dues are $20/year or $10/quarter and may be paid via cash or checks payable to The Wildlife Society, UW Chapter.

The Wildlife Society Student Chapter at the University of Washington Application for Membership

Name:_________________________________________ Date:________

Email:_________________________________________ Phone Number:________

I am a (Please circle one): Student  Faculty  Staff  Alumni  Other member of the community

If you are a student, what is your:

UW Student Number: __________________________

Class Status: _________________________________

Major(s): _________________________________ Minor(s): _________________________________

What are your interests and hobbies?

Why did you want to join TWS?
Of the following activities, which would you like to help organizing or take part in? (We encourage each member takes an active role in the club. You, and everyone else, will get more out of it that way, and will have more fun!)

___ Event Planning
___ Wildlife Society Leadership
___ Advertising and Recruiting
___ Fund Raising

Do you have any meeting topics, fieldtrip ideas, or event suggestions?

Thank you for your input and membership!
You may return this application and membership fee to:
• Any Club Meeting or Event
• Our box in Anderson Hall room 116

Thank you for your interest in the Wildlife Society student chapter at UW. If you have any questions, please email us at uwtws@u.washington.edu. Visit our website at https://students.washington.edu/uwtws to learn more about our upcoming meeting and events.